

"Stolen Honor" tries to rewrite the history of the Vietnam War, by advancing the claim that US soldiers in Vietnam did not murder, rape and bomb hundreds of thousands of innocent civilians, when in fact there is overwhelming evidence that they did. There are many people who say that the Holocaust did not happen, or that Japan did not commit atrocities in China, but the historical facts speak for themselves. Media networks should not be using public airwaves to try to brainwash the public into thinking that history never occurred. Please stop Sinclair from forcing its affiliates to show "Stolen Honor".
